

Dr. Ramiro Zúñiga is a Vice President, Medical Director at Health Net and California Health and Wellness. His focus there is to ensure the provision of high quality whole health care to the diverse communities served by both plans.

Dr. Zúñiga is originally from Cúcuta, Colombia. He received his medical degree from the Pontificia Universidad Javeriana, in Bogotá, Colombia and completed his Family Medicine Residency at St. Mary of Nazareth Hospital Center in Chicago. He completed a faculty development fellowship at UC San Francisco and a program director training program with the Association of Family Medicine Residency Directors. He went on to receive a M.B.A. degree from the UC Davis Graduate School of Management.

Ramiro worked for the Tehama County Health Center and Skilled Nursing Facility from 1996 until 1999. He then joined the San Joaquin General Hospital Family Medicine Residency program in Stockton, where he served as Chair of the Department of Family Medicine for several years. He was the FM Residency Program Director from 2008 until 2014. Ramiro has received multiple awards for his clinical, teaching, and residency director roles. He is also a member of the Beta Gamma Sigma business school academic honor society.

Dr. Zúñiga holds a FM faculty appointment at the department of Family Medicine at UC Davis School of Medicine and continues to teach FM residents and medical students. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Sacramento Latino Medical Association (SaLMA).
